Dear Harold,

January 29, 1966

The seventh looks good for us here. I will schedule for something in the afternoon at Trinity, and you will be on from 8:10-11:30 with me on the evening of the seventh. We will take care of a room for you the night of the seventh, also.

Let me know what flight or train you will arrive on the morning of the seventh and I will meet you. I am sure you can get an easy connection by plane or train for Boston on the eighth.

Heard you all night on WOR last week. Who was that idiotic woman? Was her name Gloria Day? What happened to Barry Farber? Bring a copy of Whitewash II.

Let me hear from you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

Mike
